

ABOUT PERSONS AND THINGS.

News Briefly Told.—Gathered From In and Out of the State, Nation and World.

Official announcement was made at Spartanburg on Tuesday that the C. C. & O. railroad will be opened for passenger traffic on Saturday, December 11.

Representative Patterson and State Senator Niels Christensen on Tuesday took up the matter of the question of better quarantine quarters at Charleston, Georgetown and Beaufort. Mr. Patterson will introduce a bill in Congress providing for a larger appropriation hereafter for the maintenance of the quarantine stations in different parts of the United States.

The former pastor of Westminster Church at Union, the Rev. Dr. A. G. Wardlaw, has resigned his resignation to take effect immediately. Dr. Wardlaw has received a call to Florida.

The street railway which is to be laid in Georgetown is progressing rapidly and it will not be long before the cars are being operated.

South Carolina State Baptist convention was formally organized in Anderson, on Tuesday, when Dr. A. J. S. Thomas, of Greenville, was unanimously re-elected president. Business reports were made and all matters pertaining to ecclesiastical transactions were thoroughly and interestingly discussed.

Miss Mary H. Girardeau, a well known southern woman educator, of Sumter, died some days ago in Abbeville, Ga., and her remains were laid to rest on Tuesday. Miss Girardeau was a sister of the late divine, J. L. Girardeau, of Columbia, and she was born in Charleston.

Many addresses were made before the Southern Commercial Congress, at its opening meeting in Washington, on Wednesday. The South was praised by the speakers, and Harvie Jordan declared that the cotton crop is the mainstay of all the financial institutions in the country and is now involved as a sectional question.

The first session of the Methodist Conference to be held in Abbeville began on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock at the Methodist church of which Rev. Henry Stokes is the pastor. There were possibly four hundred delegates at the opening session. Bishop A. W. Wilson, of Baltimore, will preside at the Conference.

Engineer William J. Kinyoun, of the Southern Railroad, was struck on the head while leaning from his engine and was taken to a hospital at Winston-Salem, on Tuesday. It is believed that he will die from the results of a fractured skull.

President Taft was reelected president of the American Red Cross society Wednesday. The president made a brief address, expressing the hope that some one would give to the Society an endowment fund of five million dollars. He also personally presented medals voted by the Red Cross to Lloyd C. Griscam, former ambassador to Italy, for work rendered by him during the recent earthquake in Italy, and also to Miss Katherine B. Davis and Samuel L. Parrish, who assisted in the Italian relief work.

The first Conference for the eradication of hook worm, to be held in Atlanta, January 18, 19, will be largely attended. The Atlanta chamber of commerce is in receipt of letters from the Governors of Mississippi, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, announcing that they will appoint delegates to the Convention.

"General, we are outgeneraled."
"Caramba! But how is that?"
"The other side has beaten us to the cable office."

YOUR MONEY BACK

Gilder and Weeks Return Money Paid Them if Their Medicine Fails to Do as They Say.

We positively guarantee satisfactory relief and cure to sufferers from kidney or urinary troubles. Should our remedy fail to give entire satisfaction, we will supply it free of cost to the user. That's a frank statement of facts, and we urge you to substantiate them at our risk.

To re-establish nature's functions; to strengthen, stimulate to activity and restore to perfect health weak and diseased kidneys and associate organs, there is really nothing we know of that equals Rexall Kidney Remedy.

We cannot too highly recommend this splendid medicine, and to prove our great faith in its efficacious and dependable qualities, we offer it to you with our money back promise. Surely that's the best proof we can offer that our claims are sincere and well founded. Why not begin a treatment to-day? Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Gilder & Weeks.
